

ARKANSAS BALLOT ISSUES

What's on the ballot in 2026?

Arkansas voters have a say this November whether they want to change the Arkansas Constitution. State legislators voted to put three proposed constitutional amendments and a bond issue on the ballot for you to decide. Citizen groups are also collecting voter signatures to qualify proposals for the ballot.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

The Secretary of State's Office will assign numbers to each of the following measures this summer:

- HJR1018 – The Citizen's Only Voting Amendment
- SJR11 – A constitutional amendment to amend Arkansas Constitution, Article 2, § 5, to protect the right to keep and bear arms.
- SJR15 - A constitutional amendment concerning economic development in the state of Arkansas; and authorizing the General Assembly to provide for the creation of economic development districts to promote economic development.
- Bond Issue - Issuance of State of Arkansas water, waste disposal and pollution abatement facilities general obligation bonds, not to exceed $500 million.
